

Production Assistant Bernstein's Deli

Main Duties

Working with our Production Manager and other staff, the Production Assistant is focused on food production and all associated activities including:

- participating in receiving orders from suppliers
- participating in organizing walk in fridge, freezer and other cold and/or dry storage areas
- batch cooking of perogies, cabbage rolls, knishes, soups & other items as deemed necessary
- participating in weekly visual inventory of goods for sale
- doing dishes, cleaning surfaces, sweeping, mopping and any other cleaning tasks required to keep our food prep and storage areas in immaculate condition

Employment requirements

- experience making large batches of food products as described above
- preference is for an Eastern European background
- good enough English to be able to work in an English speaking environment and answer the phone
- a positive attitude, willingness to follow direction and good energy

We are looking to hire 1-2 full time and/or 2-4 part time staff to fill this role. Shifts are typically Mon-Fri daytime but may require evenings or weekends for special events and other seasonal needs

We offer:

- benefits which include critical illness and long term disability either right away (first 30 days) or after a year of service if working a minimum of 25 hours per week, cost is shared, if you would need family coverage (not just individual) that is factored in to compensation as it is a lot more expensive.
- Sick pay after a year (min 25 hr per week worked).
- Tip share.
- Excellent discount.
- Staff shirts.

Contact email:

Aaron Bernstein
aaronb82@gmail.com