- Work with the rest of management to set marketing and sales strategy;
- Set up sales goals for each employee in the department;
- Enforce and improve department policy;
- Establish new and maintain current relationships with business and clients;
- Plan and implement international market expansion;
- Plan, direct and evaluate the performance of the sales department;
- Hire, train and coach new employees;
- Coordinate domestic and international shipping and delivery;
- Make decisions when executive management members are not available;
- Other assigned duties.

The right candidate should have:

- Minimum bachelor's degree in Business;
- Minimum five years of sales and management experience;
- Previous working experience in automobile, international trade, and e-commerce is a great asset;

- Knowing a second language in Ukrainian, Mandarin, Cantonese, Korean or Philippine languages is a great asset.
- Valid driver's license clean driving record

The right candidate will be working 40 hours a week with an hourly pay of $32 to $38 plus a bonus, depending on previous experience.

All interested candidates, please email your cover letter and resume to administration@bodafide.ca.

We encourage and appreciate all interested candidates to apply, but only selected applicants will be contacted.
