

The Machine Operator is required to ensure the safe, efficient operation, cleaning, and running adjustments for their machine(s). Responsible for the maintenance of prescribed quantity and quality of product produced. Other responsibilities include troubleshooting machine basic performance, making adjustments, and calling for additional resources as required.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Assist in saw setup and cycle changes
- Ensure the correct material is loaded and programmed
- Efficiently operate the stone fabrication machine in order to attain the required precision cuts for each job
- Track and update job status in scheduling systems
- Maintain and operate equipment in accordance with operating manuals and procedures, and maintain your assigned work area in a high state of cleanliness/readiness
- Coordinate repairs of equipment as needed
- Verify quantities, products, and condition of all materials received
- Place all products received in appropriate locations
- Process appropriate paperwork regarding all materials
- Receiving of new inventory via inventory documentation process
- Polish, cut and fabricate stone
- Install stone countertops
- Assist in various areas of a production facility as needed
- Other duties and responsibilities

Requirements:

- Dynamic problem-solving skills
- Strong communication skills
- Proficiency in material modification, material layout, and all technical expertise
- Skills in the repairing/maintaining machining equipment
- Professional demeanor and appearance
- Must Possess a valid driver's license

What We Offer at Granite Mountain Stone Design:

- Competitive wages
- Premium health benefits
- Disability Insurance
- Life Insurance

- Premium RRSP & matched contributions plan
- Paid vacation
- Continued growth and development of our people & our business

We take work-life balance seriously! Great atmosphere and flexible schedules
Please send resumes in confidence to hr@granitemountain.ca.