

ABOUT US

L'Entre-temps is a safe place to start the healing process of women leaving abusive partners.

For the last twenty years l'Entre-temps has offered women and their children the protective housing and counselling they need to get out of the cycle of violence and start new lives.

The agency has a five apartments block at an undisclosed site. Each apartment is fully furnished with everything a women and her children need. But most important l'Entre-temps provides a sense of security that is comforting to abused women. The women can stay at the long-term shelter for as long as a year.

The shelter is unique in the community in that it is the only shelter that gives priority to Francophone women.

At l'Entre-temps volunteers are a key resource and are indispensable. We are currently looking for volunteers.
