

Pressing Machine Operator - Apparel

Description

Historic, Canadian garment manufacturers, Freed & Freed International Ltd. is a 100-year-old company, based in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Today, Freed & Freed stands as one of the few remaining Canadian, 4th generation, and family run businesses in the garment industry. Long known for creating Ladies' & Men's fine apparel, Freed & Freed uses its depth of experience and its unique understanding of design, construction, and manufacturing to position itself as a high-quality maker both domestically and internationally across many categories. From outerwear to home goods, the result is always beautifully crafted, and of the highest quality.

Pressing Machine Operator - Apparel

Key Responsibilities:

- Steam press apparel - Blazers, Coats, Outerwear, etc.
- Operate industrial press machine to finish all clothing types
- Work independently to press various parts of a garment according to specifications provided
- Activate and adjust machine controls to specific temperature specifications
- Ensure pressing meets the Freed quality standards and inspection
- Ensure daily/weekly/monthly individual targets are met or exceeded
- Ability to learn new operations to achieve corporate goal of 100% efficiency

Closing Date

March 24, 2023

Categories

Manufacturing and Utilities

Employer

Freed & Freed International Ltd.

Location

Inkster

Address

1309 MOUNTAIN AVE
Winnipeg, R2X 2Y1

Job Type

Full-time

Education Level

High School

Email

lwuens@freedgroup.ca

- Adhere to Freed & Freed rules, regulations, and code of conduct

Education, Qualifications and Experience:

- 1-2+ years pressing experience, preferably in apparel manufacturing industry
- Experience using industrial steam pressing machines
- Experience with under pressing or final pressing
- Experience in a fast-paced factory setting

We offer:

- A family-like environment - we are a small but mighty team that works hard together!
- A business-casual dress code - our dress code matches our laid-back but professional work environment
- Benefits coverage including health and dental
- Continuous improvement and development - we always look to our employees for ideas to improve efficiency and grow with our team

Application Process:

- We value diversity and welcome all applications. Please advise us if an accommodation is required for reason of disability for the application and/or interview process.
- We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those selected for further consideration will be contacted for an initial interview process.
- All applicants to apply in person at 1309 Mountain Ave, Winnipeg, MB, or email L Wiens at lwiens@freedgroup.ca